NMEDD Celebrates NMIDEA Award Winner

Davis takes "Public Servant of the Year"

SANTA FE, N.M.- The New Mexico Economic Development Department (NMEDD) is proud to announce that Marketing Director Elizabeth Davis has garnered the New Mexico IDEA award for "Public Servant of the Year." The honor recognizes her outstanding contributions and efforts on behalf of the association, their communities and the State of New Mexico.

New Mexico Economic Development Department Cabinet Secretary Fred Mondragón stated, "We congratulate Ms. Davis on the hard work she has done on behalf of the Department." He added, "Her efforts, and those of her fellow award winners, exemplify the excellence needed to help New Mexico prosper."

Three other individuals who work closely with the NMEDD were also honored. They include: Angela Talbot, Senior Business Development Manager, New Mexico Partnership, for "Economic Developer of the Year"; Robert Donnell, Executive Director, Roswell Chaves County Economic Development Corporation, won the "Dallan Sanders Award"; and Deirdre Firth, City of Albuquerque Economic Development Department, was selected for the "New Mexico First Award."

The award recipients were nominated by their peers and selected by a panel of NMIDEA's past presidents.

About The New Mexico IDEA (NMIDEA): NMIDEA is a 30-year-old association of economic developers, city officials and development related executives interested in and working toward the promotion of New Mexico. For more information on NMIDEA, visit www.nmidea.com.
