Office of Mexican Affairs Invites New Mexico Food Companies to attend ExpoAlimentab Food Trade Show

SANTA FE, NM –Local food industry businesses looking to expand their product lines to Mexico are invited to participate in a trade delegation traveling October 22nd-24th to the 2009 ExpoAlimentab Food Trade Show held in Chihuahua City. Organized by the New Mexico Economic Development Department's Office of Mexican Affairs and Trade, in conjunction with the City of Albuquerque's International Trade Division and the Albuquerque Hispano Chamber of Commerce, this event is ideal for anyone looking to buy or sell food or food related products.

ExpoAlimentab is Northern Mexico's largest foods trade show, attracting over 5,000 buyers for industries ranging from packaging and food processing equipment to end food products such as produce, meats, and processed foods. Present at the Expo will be a multitude of different buyers including: Soriana, Wal Mart of México, Sam's Club, Alsuper, Smart, Bodega Ahorrera, Costco, and HEB.

The Office of Mexican Affairs and Trade has arranged heavily discounted airfare and lodging for anyone interested in joining this trade mission. The State will also have a booth at the event that participants will be able to use free of charge.

For more information or to secure your company's participation, please contact Randy Trask @ 505-231-0677 or randall.trask@state.nm.us
